Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

The two-volume study, Soviet Economy in the 1980's: Problems and Prospects, released by the Joint Economic Committee in May 1983, has received well deserved praise from the Congress, the Executive agencies, including our Ambassadors abroad, foreign and domestic specialists, and the media. The quality and utility of the analyses contained in the volumes result in no small part from your agency's contributions.

We would like to specifically commend the following:
